GUIDE TO LONDON

PLACES OF INTEREST

The letter and number in brackets (thus, N10 50) after the article indicates the map-square and page in which the place will be found.

NOTE.—Stations on the "Underground" system are shown in italics.

- Admiralty, The, Whitehall, S.W.1. The administrative headquarters of the British Navy. The wireless installation on the roof enables the Admiralty to keep in touch with the Fleet in distant seas. Admission on business only. Office hours, 10 a.m.—5 p.m. Nearest stations, Trafalgar Square, Strand. (N10 50.)
- Admiralty Arch, Pall Mall, S.W.1. This massive triumphal arch forms part of the Admiralty buildings, and was designed by Sir A. Webb. The triple gates are a fine example of wrought-iron work. Nearest stations, Trafalgar Square, Strand. (N10 38.)
- Agricultural Hall, Upper Street, Islington, N.1. From time to time important cattle shows, exhibitions, etc., are held here. For announcements see daily Press. Nearest station, Angel. (P6 27.)
- Albert Embankment connects Westminster and Vauxhall bridges, on the south side of the Thames. At its northern end is St. Thomas's Hospital, and from here a fine view of the Houses of Parliament is obtainable. Nearest stations, Westminster, Lambeth (North), Vauxhall (S.R.). (O11 50.)
- Albert Hall, Royal, Kensington Gore, S.W.7. Erected as a memorial of the Prince Consort in 1867-71, this Hall is one of the largest in the world, and is famous for its concerts and great public functions. It can accommodate about 10,000, whilst the great organ has nearly 9,000 pipes. The frieze round the top on the outside should be noticed. For concerts, public meetings, etc., see announcements in the Press. Nearest station, South Kensington. (J11 48.)
- Albert Memorial, Kensington Gardens, S.W.7. Erected in 1872 to the memory of the Prince Consort. The design has been (with some justice) adversely criticized, but the marble reliefs around the pedestal are notably excellent. The monument (by Scott) directly faces the Albert Hall (q.v.). Nearest station, South Kensington. (J11 148.)
- Alexandra Palace, Muswell Hill, N.10. A building of a similar kind to the Crystal Palace (q.v.). The Palace and grounds are free to the public, except on occasions when exhibitions and race meetings are held. The grounds contain the Alexandra Park ("A.P.") Racecourse. Nearest stations, Alexandra Palace or Wood Green (L.N.E.R. from King's Cross), Palace Gates (L.N.E.R. from Liverpool St.). Also trains from Broad St. and Moorgate St. Stations.
- Bank of England, Threadneedle St., E.C.2, familiarly known as the "Old Lady of Threadneedle St.", stands at one of the busiest spots in London, in the very heart of the city. It has the monopoly of printing and issuing bank-notes, and the vaults generally hold over £20,000,000 in bullion. It also transacts ordinary banking business, and its business offices are open daily from 9 a.m.—3 p.m. The bank is guarded at night by a detachment of Guards and watchmen. Nearest station, Bank. (R9 39.)
- Bethnal Green Museum, Cambridge Rd., E.2. A branch of the Victoria and Albert Museum, established in 1872 as a Local Museum for East London. The exhibits include a fine collection of water-colour and oil-paintings, some of great value, which was bequeathed by Joshua Dixon, Esq., of Exeter, in 1885; and collections of antique and modern furniture, textiles, etc. Open free, Tues., Wed., Fri., and Sat., 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Mon. and Thurs., 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Sun., 2.30 p.m. to 6 p.m. Nearest stations, Bethnal Green (L.N.E.R.), Cambridge Heath (L.N.E.R.). (U7 41.)
- Billingsgate Market, Lower Thames St., E.C.3. London's centre for the fish-trade. The reputation of the fish-porters for coarse language is alleged to be undeserved. Open from 5 a.m. Nearest stations, Monument, Mark Lane. (R10 39.)
- British Museum, Great Russell St., W.C.1. Originating in the Sloane collection in 1753, this great institution has no rival in the world. The Exhibition Galleries are open free daily, 10 a.m.—dusk; Sun., 2 p.m.—dusk. The Reading Room (open 9 a.m. 6 p.m.) is open only to ticket-holders (tickets gratis on application to the Director in writing), and its catalogue alone comprises over 1,000 large volumes; whilst there are

- over 50 miles of shelving. Guide-books, etc., on sale in the Entrance Hall. Official guides conduct parties daily at 12 noon and 3 p.m. There is a refreshment-room on the ground floor which is open after 3 p.m. The Museum is closed Good Friday and Christmas Day. Nearest stations, British Museum, Holborn, Tottenham Court Rd. (N8 38.)
- Brompton Oratory, Brompton Rd., S.W.7. A Roman Catholic Church, in the Italian Renaissance style, by H. Grihllé; the interior is richly decorated in mosaic and carvings. Open free to visitors except during services and on Sat. The high standard of the music attracts many worshippers. Services, daily, almost continuously, 6.30 a.m.—10 a.m. High mass, Sun., 11 a.m. Other services, 12 noon (low mass and sermon), 3.30 p.m., 7 p.m. Nearest station, Brompton Rd. (K11 48.)
- Buckingham Palace, St. James's Park, S.W.1. The London residence of the King and Queen. The new front (added in 1913) improved the formerly ugly exterior. When the sovereign is in residence the ceremony of changing the guard takes place at 10.30 a.m., an interesting ceremony, during which the Guards' Band plays. The fine interior is not shown to the public. The Royal apartments are in the north wing. Application to view the Royal Mews (cream-coloured ponies, State coach, etc.) should be made in writing to the Master of the Horse. Nearest stations, Victoria, Down St. (M11 49.)
- Bunhill Fields, City Rd., E.C.1. A famous Nonconformist burial-ground. Here are the graves of John Bunyan, Daniel Defoe, Isaac Watts (the hymn-writer), John Owen, Susannah Wesley (mother of John and Charles), etc. John Wesley is buried in his Chapel opposite.
